

art journal

Published by the College Art Association
Winter 1991 Vol. 50 No. 4

NEW YORK POST

Founded by Alexander Hamilton in 1801

PETER S. KALIKOW, Publisher
VALERIE B. SALEMSON, Chairman
JERRY N. ...
LOU COLASUO, ...
ERIC BREINDEL, ...
JOHN ...
STEVE ...

Offensive Exhibit

The National Endowment for the Arts has made a wise decision in withdrawing its sponsorship from the gallery called "Offensive Exhibit" which is being held at the ...

... personally urged the ... his generosity of ... us entirely rele-

... whose presence ...

... Cardinal O'Connor — and, by ... Catholic Church ...

... represents ...

... say, some members of the ... so fond of assert- ...

... even as it relies ... will rise to declare ... "censor-

... themselves as vic- ... repression, just as ...

... that no one is pre- ... from writing, producing ...

... they wish. The ...

... the general ...

... anything an artist ...

... After all, should the tax- ... be obliged to ...

... Hitler? Even most artists, say, Adolf ... would answer in the negative.

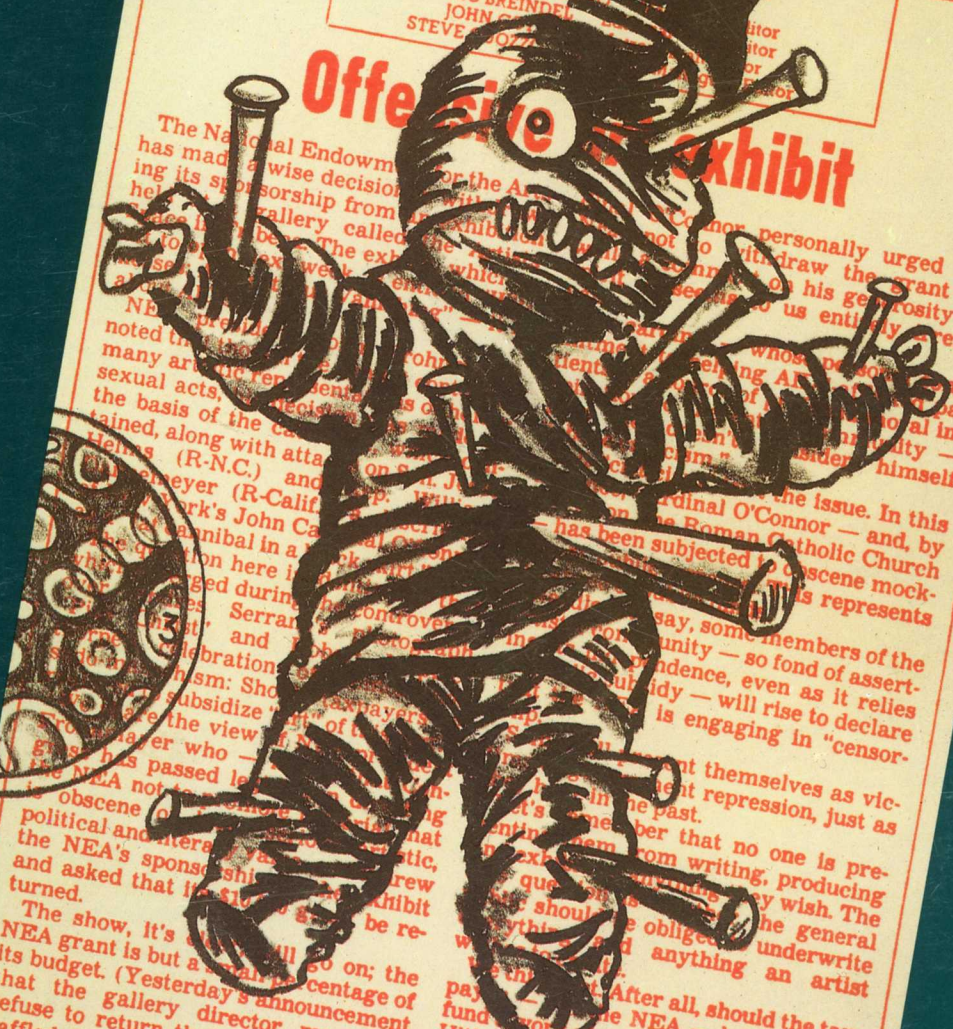

... But the difference between such an ef- ... as a "fat cannibal in a black skirt" is a ...

... matter of degree, not kind.

... Let these artists — whose record of ... work with AIDS victims couldn't possi- ...

... compassion, devotion and inspiration ... call him anything they wish: but not ...

... on our dime.

Wojnarowicz 1990

